

Rowland Rook's Bodacious Bird Trail

Can you find all the rooks hiding in the Hall?

Rowland

Riley

Rose

Rachel

Ruby

Roman

Which birds can you spot in the parkland and gardens?

Robin

Blue tit

Duck

Goose

Swan

Sparrow

Rook

Great tit

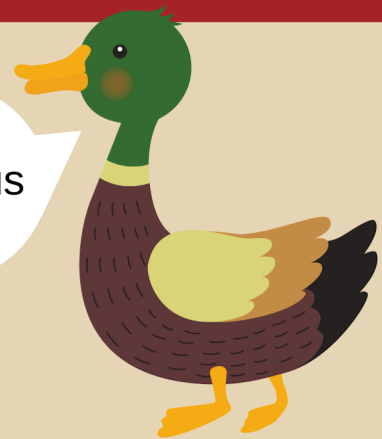

When you have had a go at all the activities, pop to the museum shop to collect your Rowland Rook sticker.

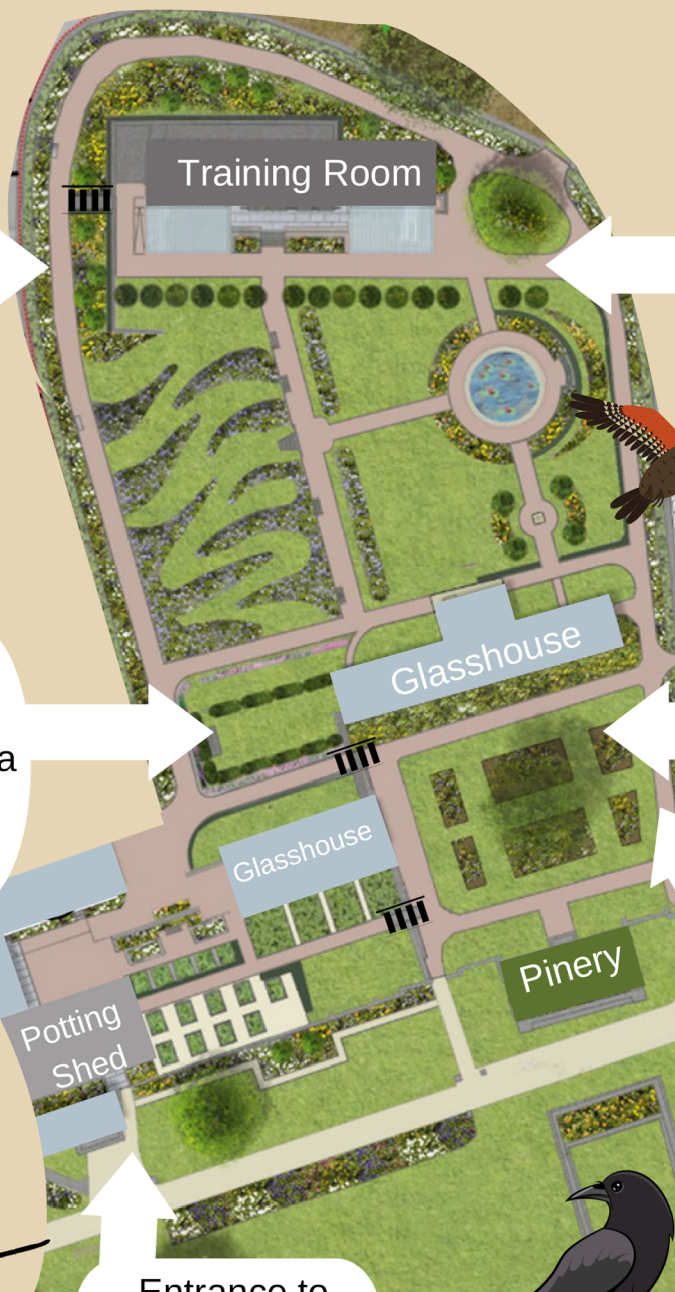

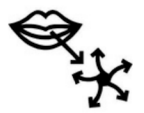

Rowland Rook's Bodacious Bird Trail

Are you quackers about birds?
Why not have a go at all the bodacious bird activities in the Walled Garden?

Brilliant Bird Calls
Have a hoot making bird calls

Move it!
Try out our different bird
actions

Cosy Nests
Build a nest in our DIY nest making area

Playtime
Bird tic-tac-toe

Entrance to Walled Garden

Cannon Hall
Museum Terrace
this way

Pleasure Grounds and Fairyland
this way

Entrance to Walled Garden

Did you know there has been a colony of rooks living at Cannon Hall for 200 years?
They were first brought to the gardens in 1823 when Lady Anne of Holkham Hall in Norfolk married John Stanhope. Lady Anne missed the sound of rooks from her childhood home so much that a pair was caught and sent to Cannon Hall where they flourished and grew in number. See if you can spot or hear any of them!